The College of Justice & Safety Alumni Society is seeking nominations for the 2006 Distinguished Alumnus Award and/or the Truett A. Ricks Award.

Nominees for the Distinguished Alumnus Award must be a graduate of an associate, baccalaureate or master’s degree program of the College of Justice & Safety. The award recognizes alumni who have:

• Made a significant contribution to the University as a whole, and/or the College of Justice & Safety in particular, during the past year or during the nominee’s career
• Had a significant accomplishment in their specific discipline during the past year or during their career
• Made a significant contribution to their community during the past year or during their career

The Truett A. Ricks Award recognizes outstanding contributions to justice and safety in Kentucky over an extended period of time. Nominees do not have to be a graduate of the College of Justice & Safety.

Nominations should be limited to 250 words and describe in detail why the person has been nominated. Anyone may submit a nomination. Please indicate which award the person is being nominated for in the box below. Please make additional copies of this form if nominating more than one person. The form is also available online at www.justice.eku.edu.
